ARTWORKS

"MIA" BY JEANETTE CLARKE

Mia is part of Jeanette Clarke's Joy collection, depicting the joyous movement experienced through dance and yoga. The distortions and stretching of the female form symbolise the stretch of our own perceptions and observations. Medium: clay. Dimensions: 540 (h) by 250 (d) by 210 (w).

A specialist in ceramics, Jeanette's work was widely exhibited in her native South Africa before she moved to the UK in 2016. Jeanette studied art and design before founding Africreations, manufacturing decorative ceramics for architects and interior designers. Since leaving the commercial sector, she has focused on bespoke sculptures celebrating the beauty of the female form.

MINIMUM BID £500

"PLANKTON" BY BERNADETTE WASHER

Plankton is a part of Bernadette Washer's Ocean Life series. This beautiful and unusual painting in resin uses powder and epoxy pigments and mica sourced from around the world, giving the piece depth and lustre with a clear, smooth finish. The archival resin, UV and pigments will not yellow or change colour, and the colours are predominantly turquoise, grey, black and subtle pink with silver and glass crystals. Size including frame: 80 X 60 cms.

"I live and work from my studio in London. For me all painting is addictive – but resin painting is something else and I love its unpredictability - not knowing if the end result will be a disaster or a wonderful success."
